Upon graduation I entered the work force. I worked at several downtown retail stores. In 1964 I went to work for Color Tile Co. In 1968 I transferred to DesMoines, Iowa to manage a Color Tile Store. In 1972 I left Color Tile Co. to work for Iowa Paint Mfg., a small regional coatings co. During my years with Iowa Paint I was in store management, purchasing, sales, sales mgt., and company-wide inventory control.

I left Iowa Paint in Sept. of 1985 to start my own business. I am acting as a consultant to small business just starting up. I am presently living in Carlisle, Iowa, 10 miles SE of DesMoines.

I enjoy photography and antiques. My wife, Rose, is a marketing specialist with Zytron Corp., a division of Dun & Bradstreet. My oldest daughter, Kimberly, is a junior at Ball State Univ. majoring in tele-comm. My son, Christopher, is in the Air Force.
