After graduating from St. Mary's in '65' with a teaching degree, I decided I wasn't ready to face high school seniors head-on and briefly flew for United Airlines out of San Francisco. Less than 6 mos. later I married my college sweetheart and we moved to Fairbanks, Alaska where he completed his military service as an artillery officer. (One of the reasons he says he can't hear me today)

In 1969 we returned to his home of St. Petersburg, Fl. where he eventually ended up with Merrill Lynch. Because new brokers started in the early 70's, I went back to school and became an R.N. graduating in '76. (Teaching still terrified me) After 4 yrs. working for a surgeon and 3 more in Medicare Home Health and an upturn in the stock market, I took up child-rearing full time.

But as our children (Tori, a recent Duke graduate) and Billy (currently at Denison in Ohio) needed me less, boredom set in.

I now work 20 hrs. a week as coordinator of volunteers + Mgt/ Buyer (also sweeper, duster + member of the chipped + broken) in our Museum of Fine Arts Gift Shop.

We often week-end on our boat but "I don't do lines!"

We've been Floridians over 24 years + recent stats quote that it averages over 120 days a year here in the 90° range. Whew! We're tempted to drift northward but once you've left snow you just can't go back again. My best to you all!

P.S. High school seniors still make me paranoid!

P.P.S. The last time I typed was in Miss Knoll's class —
